THE BALTIMORE FIRE.

Loss on Buildings in Burned District Placed at $150,000,000.

To Efficiently Guard the Hundreds of Millions of Treasure in the Smouldering Ruins Federal Soldiers Will Be Needed.

Baltimore, Feb. 9.—Baltimore is staggering under fire loss which no one has the temerity to put in figures. The important commercial district is blackened ruins, laid bare by a conflagration which raged without a momentary check from 10:45 a. m. Sunday until late in the afternoon Monday. At 3 o'clock the city officials again breathed. It was agreed the flames were under control. They had raged 28 hours, in spite of almost superhuman efforts put forth by the best fighting forces which more than half a dozen cities were able to muster.

The loss can not be accurately estimated for weeks, for business men, prosperous Sunday morning, are poor expressions heard among these men as they peer into the collapsed properties reveal an astounding number who were only poorly protected by insurance.

Inspector of Buildings Preston, after making a careful study of the burned district, placed the building loss alone at $150,000,000.

Baltimore, Feb. 9.—The burned district is within the territory bounded on the west by Liberty street, on the north by Lexington street, on the east by Jones Falls and on the south by the Basin. Within this district were the big structures on Fayette, Gay, Lombard, Charles, Balderston, Ellicott, Hollingworth and Cheap Side streets. Passing southeast along the Basin the following large docks were destroyed: McClure's, Patterson's, Smith's, Frederick, Long and Union. Small thoroughfares do not extend as far north as Lexington street and which were in the path of the flames are Commerce, Frederick and Mill streets.

The district thus swept by the fire comprised 75 blocks and nearly 2,500 buildings.

Baltimore, Feb. 10.—Amid ruins still hot and smoking, Baltimore has begun its resurrection. With the dawn of a clear wintry day whose brightness was in itself an inspiration, the apathy of Monday gave way to energy and from the governor of the state to the least private citizen the people of this distressed city aroused themselves to meet the appalling conditions that confront them.

It was a day of conferences. The governor, the mayor and various municipal officials met and threshed out the problems that are theirs by virtue of public office. From this conference came a decision that Baltimore for the present needs no outside help, but will endeavor with her own resources and those of the state to meet the emergency. At this conference also was developed the machinery for an advisory legislative commission to act in conjunction with the legislature.

The military officials had unusual problems to decide and solved them in a military manner, for Tuesday every pass that has been issued giving entrance to the fire lines was revoked. No civilian may pass the cordon of citizen soldiers which after 48 hours of continuous duty Tuesday night stretched around the fire swept desert where lay safes and vaults containing untold treasure.

With equal promptness the chamber of commerce held a general meeting and issued a formal announcement that reflected prevailing hopefulness, declaring "there are already such evidences of recuperation that all are encouraged in the hope of the early restoration of every branch of trade."

The stock exchange members met and decided to rebuild as soon as possible. The same story can be told of practically every commercial body, while on every hand is evidence of private effort toward rehabilitation.

All things considered, the public stock taking that engrossed the business world of Baltimore Tuesday was satisfactory. But this does not mean that the great fire was a lesser calamity than has been pictured in these dispatches. The fact is that 140 acres of business buildings, representing property to the approximate value of $125,000,000 was destroyed within the journey of a clock's hand. History is marked by few calamities so vast and so costly in actual values, but with the passing of the first great shock and prostration, the brighter side is coming uppermost and a realization of what Baltimore-escaped is dawning.

A great cloud was lifted Tuesday afternoon when it was discovered that practically all of the vaults and strong rooms and safes of the financial concerns which had buildings destroyed were unhurt. A tremendous loss in securities had been anticipated and when vault after vault yielded up its treasure unharmed the joy of the guardians was boundless.

From one trust company's safes alone papers to the amount of more than $200,000,000 was recovered. The news cheered the whole city and encouraged immediate and thorough investigation. Merchants and their assistants, smoke soiled and begrimed and hollow eyed from anxiety and loss of sleep, worked like laborers in the smoking ruins to uncover their safes, and in nearly every instance they were rewarded by intact contents.

Baltimore, Feb. 11.—The situation in stricken Baltimore began to visibly clear Wednesday after a conference at the Baltimore hotel between Mayor McLane, a special joint committee of the legislature and a formidable delegation of representative business men. This conference was arranged with a view of meeting in a practical way the awful exigency which this community now faces. At this meeting, besides the mayor, there were present influential members of the state law-making body, the board of public works, a dozen bank presidents, former Gov. Smith, United States Senator-elect Rayner and several of the leading citizens.

The supreme question to be decided was that of calling upon the national government for soldiers to take the places of the two state militia regiments now doing police duty in the burned district. The constitution of Maryland requires that no such request can be made of the president except by authority of the state legislature. The legislative committee was present to hear the views of the mayor and officers of the city on that point.

A brief discussion showed the belief of those present that this is not a time for sentiment as to the ability of the state to take care of itself and that the United States soldiers were needed and needed at once.

On this score it was shown that the militiamen were already much exhausted by their long continued sentry duty, that they should be relieved so that they might return to their several vocations and that the militia on active duty is costing the state $50,000 a day.

Mayor McLane was particularly insistent that to efficiently guard the hundreds of millions of treasure that lie buried beneath the smouldering ruins called for the strong arm of the federal soldiers. The announcement of the legislative committee that it would recommend at once the immediate passage of the necessary resolution was received with pleasure by the officers and the business men present and now that the legislature has formally acted there is every assurance that a national cordon around the devastated region will inspire a feeling of hopeful confidence in the future.

Mayor McLane's announcement that he will appoint an emergency committee of citizens to act as an advisory board to municipal officials is a great step forward in the way of putting the situation upon a practical, business-like basis.

There is no doubt that within the past 24 hours the business men of Baltimore have been aroused in an extraordinary degree to the importance of doing everything possible to keep their trade advantages from slipping away. Merchants and bankers have been conferring on this subject and the prevailing conviction is that it will require the utmost vigilance to prevent the defection of a considerable volume of commerce to Philadelphia and New York. It is believed here that the situation may be saved if the debris can be cleared away and temporary buildings erected within four months. That a large percentage of the spring trade will be lost is inevitable, but there is a set resolution among wholesale merchants that the percentage shall be as small as possible.

The opening Wednesday of the board room by the chamber of commerce and the receipt of quotations, the uninterrupted shipments of grain cargoes, the certainty of state aid and the notification by some of the large insurance companies of their readiness to pay 50 per cent. on losses, and the action of the legislature in asking for federal troops, constitute a chain of incidents which have contributed materially to the restoration of public confidence and cheerfulness.

TEAMSTER ARRESTED.

He is Charged With the Murder of Miss Sarah Schafer.

The Warrant Was Sworn Out by Detective Reed and the Prisoner Taken to Jeffersonville For Safe Keeping.

Bedford, Ind., Feb. 10.—James McDonald, a teamster, was arrested Tuesday night on a warrant charging him with the murder of Sarah Catherine Schafer, in the cab shed off of L street on the night of January 21. The warrant on which McDonald was arrested was sworn out by Detective Reed at 9 o'clock Tuesday night before Mayor J. Hickson Smith and Prosecutor Miller, the latter arriving here late Tuesday evening for that purpose. The arrest was made by Detectives Smith and Reed, Police-men Myers and Sheriff Smith. The prisoner was arrested at his home and taken in a cab to the office of S. B. Lowe, where he was confined until taken to the Jeffersonville reformatory by Detectives Reed and Smith. The movements of the officers were clothed in secrecy and no one anticipated the action of the authorities.

Following a rumor that the arrest had been made an excited crowd gathered at the Monon station expecting the prisoner to be taken north on the Monon to Indianapolis. Crowds congregated on the street corners discussing the arrest. The prisoner's whereabouts was kept a secret from the general public. Precaution was taken by the detectives to keep the public in ignorance of their actions, and the cab containing McDonald and his captors was driven in a roundabout way down an alley in the rear of Lowe's office, the prisoner being hustled up a rear staircase. For several hours the detectives and their prisoner were closeted together, the former resorting to the usual sweating method, but whether McDonald made a confession or not, Detective Reed would not divulge.

To conform with the laws of this state the preliminary trial of the prisoner must be held within 48 hours after the arrest and McDonald will be returned here for the hearing. The officials, to guard against any possibility of lynching, have communicated with Gov. Durbin requesting that militia be ordered here to protect the prisoner.

FIRE IN CHICAGO.

Several Firms Burned Out Entailing a Loss of $350,000.

Chicago, Feb. 10.—At 1 o'clock Wednesday morning a serious fire broke out in the factory of the Wilce Lumber Co., makers of sash, doors and blinds, at 21st and Allport streets. The flames spread through the factory with great rapidity and it was soon destroyed.

The box factory of the J. J. Wintermeyer Co. was next attacked and from there the flames spread to the establishment of the Chicago Picture Backing Co., which adjoins it on the south, and this place was soon in flames. The lumber yard of H. C. Schultz, on Throop street, was attacked by the flames, but after a hard struggle the firemen succeeded in checking its spread. The plants of the Chicago Table Co., the Chicago Picture Backing Co. and of the Wintermeyer Co. were completely destroyed. It is expected that the loss will reach $350,000. Two firemen were injured by a falling wall, one of whom, N. C. Margraff, will die.

Shortly after 2 o'clock a section of the wall of the Wintermeyer factory fell, injuring five more firemen. None of them is fatally hurt.

Fibroid Tumors Cured.

A distressing case of Fibroid Tumor, which baffled the skill of Boston doctors. Mrs. Hayes, of Boston, Mass., in the following letter tells how she was cured, after everything else failed, by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. Hayes' First Letter Appealing to Mrs. Pinkham for Help:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have been under Boston doctors' treatment for a long time without any relief. They tell me I have a fibroid tumor. I cannot sit down without great pain, and the soreness extends up my spine. I have bearing-down pains both back and front. My abdomen is swollen, and I have had flowing spells for three years. My appetite is not good. I cannot walk or be on my feet for any length of time. The symptoms of Fibroid Tumor given in your little book accurately describe my case, so I write to you for advice."—(Signed) Mrs. E. F. HAYES, 252 Dudley St., (Roxbury) Boston, Mass.

Note the result of Mrs. Pinkham's advice—although she advised Mrs. Hayes, of Boston, to take her medicine—which she knew would help her—her letter contained a mass of additional instructions as to treatment, all of which helped to bring about the happy result.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Sometime ago I wrote to you describing my symptoms and asked your advice. You replied, and I followed all your directions carefully, and to-day I am a well woman."

"The use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound entirely expelled the tumor and strengthened my whole system. I can walk miles now."

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is worth five dollars a drop. I advise all women who are afflicted with tumors or female trouble of any kind to give it a faithful trial."—(Signed) Mrs. E. F. HAYES, 252 Dudley St., (Roxbury) Boston, Mass.

Mountains of gold could not purchase such testimony—or take the place of the health and happiness which Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound brought to Mrs. Hayes.

Such testimony should be accepted by all women as convincing evidence that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound stands without a peer as a remedy for all the distressing ills of women; all ovarian troubles; tumors; inflammations; ulceration, falling and displacements of the womb; backache; irregular, suppressed or painful menstruation. Surely the volume and character of the testimonial letters we are daily printing in the newspapers can leave no room for doubt.

Mrs. Hayes at her above address will gladly answer any letters which sick women may write for fuller information about her illness. Her gratitude to Mrs. Pinkham and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is so genuine and heartfelt that she thinks no trouble is too great for her to take in return for her health and happiness.

Truly it is said that it is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that is curing so many women, and no other medicine; don't forget this when some druggist wants to sell you something else.

$5000 FORFEIT if we cannot forthwith produce the original letters and signatures of above testimonials, which will prove their absolute genuineness. Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.
